3. For what purposes is your personal data processed?

Your personal data is processed for the following purposes:

- 1) insurance risk assessment in order to conclude an insurance contract, grant insurance cover — we will use profiling for risk assessment, conclusion of a contract or granting insurance cover and also to determine the amount of the insurance premium. Decisions will be made on the basis of data collected in the process of granting insurance cover and the conclusion of the insurance contract, including date of birth and information about health,
- 2) performance of the insurance contract, including the execution of insurance activities relating to liquidation of claims. If a claim is made, profiling is used to determine the liquidation path. Decisions on the selection of a liquidation path will be made on the basis of data collected during the claim notification process and the type of claim.
- 3) reinsurance of risk,
- 4) making claims,
- 5) direct marketing of the controller's own products and services — in the case of direct marketing of own products and services, we will use profiling. This means that, based on your data and other information, we will develop a marketing profile to present you with offers tailored to your needs. Based on such a profile, no automated decisions will be taken,
- 6) counteracting insurance crimes — to the extent necessary to prevent abuse and using ERGO Hestia's activities for criminal purposes,
- 7) handling of complaints and appeals regarding services provided by ERGO Hestia, as well as requests and queries addressed to ERGO Hestia,
- 8) fulfilment of obligations related to counteracting money laundering and financing of terrorism and FATCA and CRS reporting — fulfilment of the obligations of an obliged institution arising from the Act of 1 March 2018 on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorist Financing (hereinafter: "the Act on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorist Financing"), fulfilment of the obligation to exchange tax information with the United States under the Act of 9 October 2015 on the Implementation of the Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Poland and the Government of the United States of America on Improving Compliance with International Tax Obligations and Implementing FATCA Legislation (hereinafter: "the FATCA Act"), fulfilment of obligations arising from the Act of 9 March 2017 on the Exchange of Tax Information with Other Countries (hereinafter: "the CRS Act"),
- 9) fulfilling the obligations incumbent on the controller in connection with sanctions introduced by relevant regulations of the United Nations, the European Union or the United States of America,

10) related to customer service via the hotline — your personal data may be processed in the form of a recorded conversation,

11) ensuring security of persons and property — the controller uses video surveillance,

12) analytical and statistical purposes.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Legal basis for data processing:

- 1) necessity to conclude and perform an insurance contract, grant insurance cover and perform the contract,
- 2) legitimate interests of the data controller — including conducting direct marketing of his/her services, the possibility of redress, counteracting and prosecuting crimes committed to the detriment of the insurance firm, reducing the insurance risk associated with concluding an insurance contract,
- 3) compliance with the legal obligations of the data controller (arising from the provisions of national and international law, including European Union law) — processing to fulfil the obligations arising from legal provisions includes, inter alia, processing based on accounting regulations, handling complaints related to reporting to public authorities, including supervisory authorities and to other entities to which ERGO Hestia is obliged to report, fulfilment of obligations under the Act on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorist Financing, the FATCA Act and the CRS Act,
- 4) legitimate interest of a third party, i.e. the parent company in the MunichRe capital group (to which the controller belongs), as an entity directly obliged to apply the sanctions of the United States of America and ensure that related parties observe them,
- 5) consent in the event that it is given freely.

5. To which recipients will your personal data be transferred?

Your personal data may be transferred to:

- 1) entities processing personal data at the request of ERGO Hestia, among others IT service providers, data processors for the purpose of debt collection, provision of archiving services, conducting liquidation proceedings of insurance claims, insurance agents,
- 2) reinsurance undertakings,
- 3) other insurance firms in case separate consent is granted,
- 4) entities carrying out medical activities,
- 5) other entities in case separate consent is granted,
- 6) other controllers if legitimate interests of the data controller exist.

If you give consent, your data may be forwarded to other insurance firms in order to assess insurance risk and to entities from the ERGO Hestia capital group for the purpose of direct marketing of their products and services.

Transfer of personal data outside the European Economic Area

ERGO Hestia will transfer your personal data to recipients located in countries outside the European Economic Area if it proves necessary to perform the insurance contract we have concluded with you. ERGO Hestia shall ensure appropriate safeguards to secure the personal data. For information on how to obtain a copy of these safeguards or where they have been made available, please contact the data controller or the Data Protection Officer.

6. What are your rights related to the processing of personal data?

- 1) The right to withdraw consent — to the extent that consent is the basis for the processing of your personal data, you have the right to withdraw consent. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing which was based on consent before its withdrawal,
- 2) the right to access personal data (information about processed data, copy of data) and the right to request its rectification (correction), deletion or restriction of its processing,
- 3) the right to object to the processing of personal data — you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data — to the extent that this personal data is processed on the basis of the legitimate interests of the controller. In particular, you have the right to object to the processing of personal data for the purposes of direct marketing and profiling,
- 4) the right to data portability — you also have the right to transfer personal data, i.e. to receive your personal data from the controller in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and you have the right to transmit this data to another controller,
- 5) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority responsible for the protection of personal data,

In order to exercise the above rights, please contact the data administrator or the Data Protection Officer. Contact details are indicated in points 1-2 above.

7. Other information

For what period will your personal data be stored?

Where an insurance contract has been concluded or insurance cover granted, your personal data shall be stored until the expiry of the limitation period for claims under the insurance contract or until the obligation to store the data under the law expires, in particular the obligation to keep the accounting documents relating to the insurance contract, the obligation to store the data pursuant to the Act on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorist Financing, the FATCA Act and the CRS Act.

If no insurance contract has been concluded or insurance cover granted, your personal data shall be stored until the claims resulting from those expire.

If no insurance contract has been concluded or insurance cover granted, in the event that you grant appropriate consent your personal data will be used for marketing purposes, unless you withdraw your consent. The data will be processed for analytical and statistical purposes for a period of 12 years from the date of termination of the insurance contract.

Information on the requirement to provide data

The provision of personal data in connection with the conclusion of an insurance contract or granting insurance cover is necessary for the conclusion of an insurance contract or granting insurance cover and for the performance of the insurance contract and for insurance risk assessment — without the provision of personal data, it is not possible to conclude an insurance contract or grant insurance cover, liquidate claims. Where the provision of personal data is necessary for the handling of complaints, failure to provide personal data will render handling of complaints impossible.

The provision of personal data for marketing purposes is voluntary.
